In appreciation of service given to South School we are happy to dedicate this 1954 annual to
Miss Edith B. Ruttan

CHESTER F. MILLER Superintendent

MAURICE M. GUY Principal

With the closing of another school year another Annual SIS Boom is brought off the press. This school year has been filled with many activities, the meeting and making of new friends, and the successful attainment of many achievements. This SIS Boom, too, is filled with many things to help remind us of the year 1953-54. May it be a source of pleasure to you both now and in the years to come.

Best wishes to all for a pleasant vacation and a special "good luck in the future" to all ninth graders.

Maurice M. Guy

First Semester Honor Assembly

An assembly was held February 12 to honor students who maintained a high scholarship-citizenship record and also those who contributed some special service to the school. To earn an honor pin, a student must keep a 3.0 or B average in scholarship and 3.5 or B+ average in citizenship. To earn an "S" pin, a student must fulfill certain requirements set up by the adviser or faculty member who submits his name.

Connie Roush read the President's Message-Jack O'Brien explained the qualifications necessary for a student to be awarded an honor pin or an "S" pin. Carol Whitmer, Kathie McCulloch, and Mary Kay Spadafore spoke on the significance of the traditional candle lighting ceremony. As each girl spoke, she lighted a candle representing Service, Industry, and Sportsmanship. James Mark and Ray Fischer read the names of students receiving awards. This list recorded 187 honor pins, 72 "S" pins, and eleven honor certificates.

Fifth honor pins were received by 31 students who will become eligible for a gold pin in June if the required averages are maintained for the rest of the year. These students include: Virginia Anderson, Kay Balzer, Judy Bender, Sharon Berkompas, Pat Culver, Pat Day, Sharon Demo, Ray Fischer, Mary Flucke, Julia Frieling, Ray Graham, Marilyn Hatch, Mary Beth Howard, Mary Jenning, Jim Jerome, Pat Kirchner, Carol Kleinert, Marianne Krenz, Jaimie Mark, Kathie McCulloch, Jan Miller, Judy Moeller, Jack O'Brien, Connie Roush, Judi Smith, Mary Kay Spadafore, Norma Spaeth, Roberta Stormont, Ruthann Thumme, Marilyn Vogt, Carol Whitmer.

Presidents' Council

Our 1954 Presidents' Council, made up of all the junior high homeroom presidents, worked on a number of projects this year — the major ones being the Red Cross fund drive and better citizenship campaign.

Another successful Red Cross drive which reached 100% goal in memberships was planned by a committee made up of the following students: Ray Graham, Ray Fischer, Connie Clark, Bob Carlson, Bill Riepe, Roger Clark, Dennis Stewart, Bill Mantle, and Gary Murphy.

A planning committee composed of two representatives from each junior high grade was elected to plan a campaign to emphasize courtesy and pride in our school. The committee was made up of Judy Moeller, Barry Stricker, Roger Clark, Goeff List, Bill Riepe, and Joann Sandow.

During the year, South took part in two citizenship panel discussions. At the first one, held at North, our representative was Ray Fischer. Two representatives, Gary Murphy and Virginia Anderson, were sent to Webber for the second discussion.

Our council chose the names of singers for homeroom names in our circus ticket contest.

As always, South's Presidents' Council helped to make the city-wide Cleanup, Paintup, Fixup campaign a success.

Our first semester officers included: Ray Graham, president; Judy Moeller, vice-president; Pat Boyd, secretary; and Dennie Stewart, treasurer.

Second semester officers were: Gary Murphy, president; Roger Clark, vice-president; Virginia Anderson, secretary; Julia Frieling, treasurer.

Instrumental Solo And Ensemble Festival

A number of band and orchestra students played at the junior high Instrumental Solo and Ensemble Festival at Central, May 8.

Students participating included Janet Gage, Mary Flucke, Shelley Abler, Ruthanne Thumme, and Pat Kirchner, a violin quartet; Barbara Lewis and Carol Stuart, a violin duet; Patricia Day and Virginia Anderson, a baritone duet; Beckey Habel, Roberta Stormont, Hugh Smith, Jim Mark, and Pete List, a baritone duet.

Accompianst for the violins was Janet Gage, who also played a piano solo.

The Junior Red Cross Drive

Again leading the schools in contributions to th Junior Red Cross, South collected as a grand total $412.56.

The 7A205's, the 8A112's, and the 9A132's led the homerooms in their respective grades. Junior high contributions amounted to $205.32; elementary children brought in $70.10. The Service Club range rummage sale with unclaimed articles from the los and found department.

The drive, which began November 16, and ended November 25, was spearheaded by a planning up of members from the Presidents' Concil Members included: Ray Graham, Presidents' Council president, Ray Fischer, Connie Clark, Bob Carlson, Bill Reipe, Roger Clark, Dennis Stewart, Bill Mantle, and Gary Murphy. Sponsors were Miss Kelley, Miss Sandhoff and Mr. Guy.

Our annual talent show netted $119.30. This as sembly was presented on Novemper 25, and seventh, eighth and ninth graders were eligible to try out. The following students performed: Gary Haman, Dianne Orr, Sharon Demo, Nancy Needham, Emily Irons, Thirza MacKinnon, Hank Collier, Nancy Kerns, Mary Johnson, Sharon Posey, Nadine Williams, Jacquie Humphrey, Janet Gage, Woody Wilson, Marge Simon, Sue Dingman, and Karen Kraft. Also performing were Bonnie Seamon, Sue Mann, Betty Laverty, Gail Carey, Connie Clark, Glenda Mockridge, Carolyn Wolf, Connie Snider, Jane Schutt, Sandra Schriener and Larry Weaver.

Library Staff

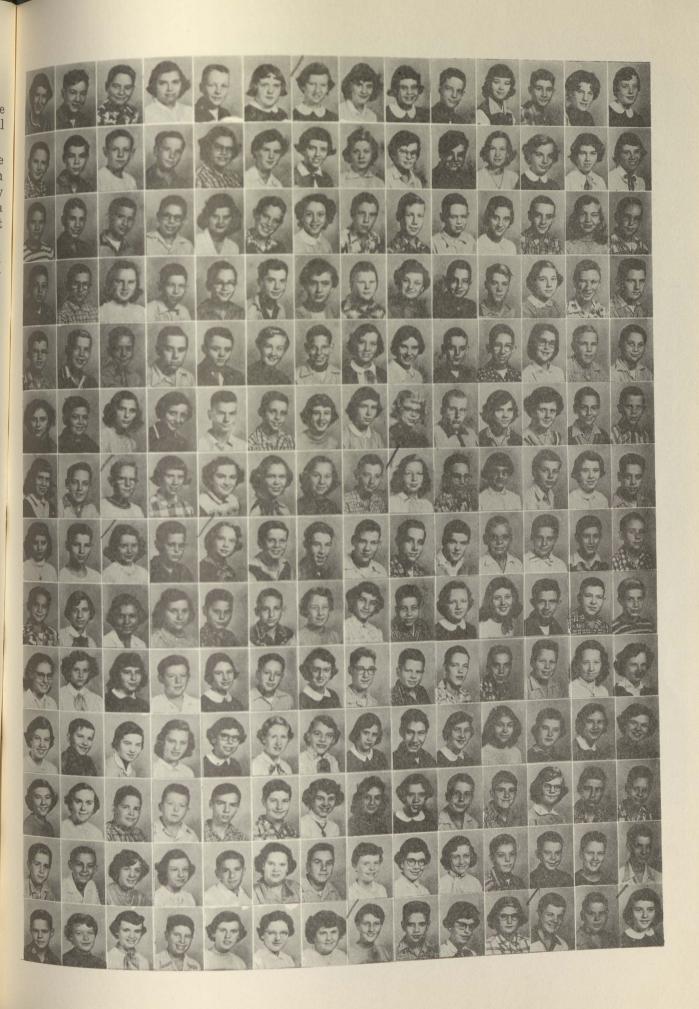

Supplying the junior high and elementary grades with enjoyable reading books keeps Miss Earle and the eighth and ninth grade library staff constantly busy. The staff is as follows:

Circus Talent Assemblies

Seventh Grade

I've been many years with the circus, I'm an old hand, I act and I assist: My life, it is grand. My head is my foot; My foot is my head, If it were not for people, My act would be dead.

This was the first clue of the circus mystery Mr. Eynon presented at the seventh grade talent assembly, February 23. No one could guess the answer.

The winner of the quiz, which was based on the T. V. show "On Your Account," was Bob Montague who scored 40 points.

Marilyn Joyce and Karen Kraft pantomiming to "Beg Your Pardon" took first place in the talent part of the show. Other contestants were Jim Stormont, Nancy Campbell, and Joyce Clauss, a saxophone trio playing "Changing Partners." A rhythmical tap dance was presented by Thirza MacKinnon and Linda Edwards. Pantomiming to "Old-fashioned School" were Janet Irving, Nancee Clark, and Ann Burrows. Gary Hayman and Tom Kackmeister played on the accordian "In the Misssion of St. Augustine." Bonnie Dewell sang the same tune as a separate act. Dianne Korbin, Pat O'Leary, and JoAnn LaFond pantomimed to "The Jones Boy."

Eighth Grade

One of the tying first place acts from our eighth grade talent assembly was "The Close Harmony Boys," Roger Clark, Larry Leddy, David McMath, Paul Neiman, Nati Rosales, and Mike Siedel, singing "Heart of My Heart." The other winner was Woody Wilson singing and playing the uke to "Grandma's Lye Soap."

Also competing were Nancy Bruning, a tap dance; Nancy Needham and Lana Risely, a pantomine; Joyce Buggia, a pantomine; and Pam MacRae and Sue Robertson, the Charleston.

Mr. Eynon gave the second clue for the mystery which read:

Legs I have on both head and feet, I take many steps and often I creep. The two top homerooms selected in the quiz were the 112's and 105's. Neither of their representatives, Jacquie Humphrey and Ted Moyer, succeeded in guessing the mystery.

Ninth Grade

Winners of the ninth grade circus assemb were Sue Mann and Connie Clark pantomiming "How Could You Believe Me?"

Pete List, Jaimie Mark, Don Farrar, Ted Grigg Bob Nagel and Gary Murphy made up a ban which played "Summertime." Julia Freiling, Mar lyn Hatch, Pat Day, and Mary Flucke did a nove ty act. Sharon Demo and Judy Neimeyer chos "John's Other Wife" to pantomime to. Dori Swanson sang and played on her uke. Tap Dar cer Bonnie Seaman entertained to wind up th program.

Ray Graham, 9A110, guessed the circus myster after Mr. Eynon gave him the third clue which read

I have been used by man and beast.

Women and girls to say the least.

Acrobats and aerialists, tumblers and clowns.

Dogs, monkeys, and a pig of renown.

Some go up but they don't come down.

The answer to the mystery turned out to be the "ladders"!

Held in the boys' gym, our last circus assembly featured "Bible's Royal Animal Circus" which was a program of animal acts including Bonzo, the roller-skating, bicycle-riding chimpanzee, and jockey riding dogs and monkeys. This assembly is the only one throughout the year when both elementary pupils and junior high students are all together.

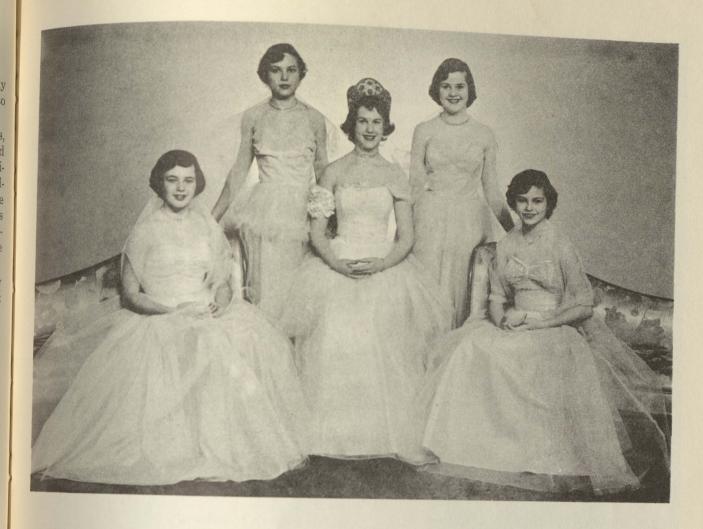

Miss Gay awarded prizes to the top ticket sellers who included: Woodrow Wilson, David Henne, Bill Riepe, Gail Carey, Jack Day, Gordon Jewett, Marilyn Riepe, Geraldine Brown, Ronald Maul, Bonnie Seaman, Nancy Kerns, Richard Gardner, Glenn Lewis, and Judith Butcher.

Ad Salesmen

In the circus ad sales competition, Bill Wiechmann took top honors, with Ray Fischer coming in second.

Circus Acts on TV

Mr. Guy was interviewed concerning the circus on a television program coming over WKNX TV on March 18, the opening day of the three-day stand of the circus. After a brief summary of circus history and policy, Mr. Guy introduced Marilyn Joyce, Karen Kraft, Woody Wilson, and Jack and Jill Hegenauer who gave the television audience a preview of our circus acts.

The 1954 King of School Shows

For the second time in her fifteen years, Nancy Schriener reigned over a South School Spendless and Seemore Circus; in 1947, when Nancy was in the third grade, she was chosen elementary queen. As a ninth grader, Nancy's attendants included Sue Mann, Connie Roush, Roberta Stormont, and Sue Symons. The queen and her court were selected by ballot cast by the entire junior high school; nominations were made by the ninth grade only. Other nominees for queen included Virginia Anderson, Kay Balzer, July Blohm, Connie Clark, Pat Culver, Pat Day, Becky Habel, Carol Kirby, Pat Kirchner, Marianne Krenz, Janice Miller, Judy Moeller, Janice Nab, and Carol Whitmer.

Elementary girls made up the royal court for the matinee performances. The queens were Judy Rupp and Connie Hall and the attendents included Kathleen Beisel, Valerie Crawford, Lynn Noerr, Elaine Kietzman, Donna Graham, Patty Leesch, Karen Flentje, and Marlee Frederick.

After crowning the queen, Mr. Guy presented

Jack O'Brien who served as master of ceremonies. Jack was chosen from a group of candidates that included Mary Flucke, Ray Fisher, Jim Mark, Don Callison, Tom Williams, and Terry Gronda.

The cadence of the drums announced the entrance of South's marching band which, under the the direction of Mr. Shumate, presented three stirring marches: "El Capitan," "Entry of the Gladiators," and "Independentia."

Promenading into the circus spotlight, the "Star Square Dancers" took their places for an old fashioned hoe-down. Clad in gay checks and jeans were: Judy Bender, Herb Benjamin, Don Callison, Jim Devers, Luel Gerard, Ann Finke, Martin Hill, Judy Holmes, Larry Leddy, David McMath, June Metzger, Barbara Ormsby, Jackie Reeder, Nati Rosales, Deanna Salvi, Bob Schneider, Jim Schram, and Nadine Williams.

Reminscent of a rollicking era was the "Roaring Twenties," a charleston line with typical costumes and routine. Miss Zubler's flappers were: Carolyn Ganyan, Sue Gilbert, Emmi Irons, Mary Flucke, Julia Frieling, Pat Kirchner, Eloise Bragg, Carol Whitmer, Sue Peterson, Nancy Vondette, Carol O'Connor, Jill Wollendorf, Bonnie Seaman, Barbara Cooper, Marilyn Riepe, and Sharon Demo.

A fast-moving drill team, the "Snappy Jacks" coached by Mr. Noble and his three assistants, Gary Murphy, Ed Hoffman, and Ted Griggs, went though their paces. Handling the rifles were Wayne Young, Ronald Albright, Bruce Southworth, Dennis Stewart, Steven Cochran, Jim Williams, Walter Bowman, Rodney Spence, Charles Barr, Don Thomas, Darrell Scott, Jacob Bastians, William Arndt, Dominic Buggia, Woody Wilson, Bill Boehm, Jaimie Mark, Douglas Frank, Bob Burk, and Dale Elbert.

Two little animal friends, Marilyn Joyce and Karen Kraft, apologized coyly to each other in a musical pantomime, "Beg Your Pardon."

Seeing girls swinging in the air is exciting but to see them dangling by their ankles is spectacular and this was done, along with many other feats, by South's trapeze artists. The performing "Skylarks" were Sue Robertson, Myrna Walker, Carol Kirby, Francis Phillips, Sharon Posey, and Jacquie Humphrey.

Just look at her spin! Displaying great skill and strength, Gearldine Brown, as the "Whirlwind," performed on a high trapeze. Breaking her previous records, Gearldine did 85 turns.

An old favorite, the pyramid builders, showed their balance and coordination in an act called "Human Blocks." These boys included Art Kickland, Larry Brandel, Roger Smith, Jack Docham, Bob Montague, Don Long, Chip Larsen, Bob Rock, Gerry Harding, Dale Peterson, David Reed, Jim Hale, Ronnie Maul, and Al Bailey.

Our madrigals turned sailor girls for this occasion. They sang and did a lively dance to the "Bell Bottom Blues." The chorus consisted of: Shelly Abler, Connie Clark, Pat Culver, Jacquie Humphrey, Nancy Kerns, Pat Kirchner, Nancy Needham, Sandra Schriener, Sharon Smith, Janice Rapp, Mary Kay Spadafore, and Janet Turrill.

Muscular agility and coordination were displayed at their best when the "Acrobatic Petauristaers" went through a completely new tumbling routine, combining both comedy and gymnastics. Coached by Mr. Grossman, the boys were: Bill LaLonde, Gerald Albrecht, Adam Daubert, Wayne Patterson, Jim Hughes, Jack Hegenauer, Walter Link, Dick Langley, Larry Weaver, Jerry Moll, Paul Raysis, Dick Schardt, Albert Beem, Woody Wilson, Ke Heidger, and Dick Bosley.

The spotlight then focused on the "Shrim Belles," swinging and swaying high in the air of the ladders. Under the direction of Miss Vassay the girls included Rachel Miller, Marcia Zacharia Marilyn Price, Charmaine Stander, Connie Snide Marcia Pfeuffer, Karen McNicol, Barabara Denoand Connie Burbank.

Up-up-and-down and away we go! The "Bouncin Beauties," performing forward and backward flip on the trampoline under the direction of Mr. How ay included: Jo Ellen Boegert, Rose Marie Kruger Judy LaFluer, Connie Ruiz, Gail Smith, Pat Boundow, and Jill Hegenauer.

Gracefully shimmering their silken wings, the "Butterfly" girls, Marguerite Engle and Kay Cum mings, were suspended by their teeth at dizzy heights The girls were assisted by Nancy Bartels and coached by Mr. Howay.

Jump rope in a new style! Dances, roller skating, and other routines were done by the "Jumping Jills:" Susan Pryer, Gail Murphy, Deanne Salvi, Roberta Slaton, Linda Edwards, Mary Hardt, Susan Collver, Sandra Cornish, Kathleen LaBeau, Joann LaFond, Thirza Mac-Kinnon, Gail Staudacher, Lana Riseley, and Nancy Needham. Miss Vassaw trained the girls.

Woody Wilson, the little guy with the big voice, entertained the audience with his ukelele version of "Grandma's Lye Soap."

A study in perpetual motion was performed on the revolving ladders by Pam MacRae and Nancy Kerns in an act titled the "Whirling Dervish."

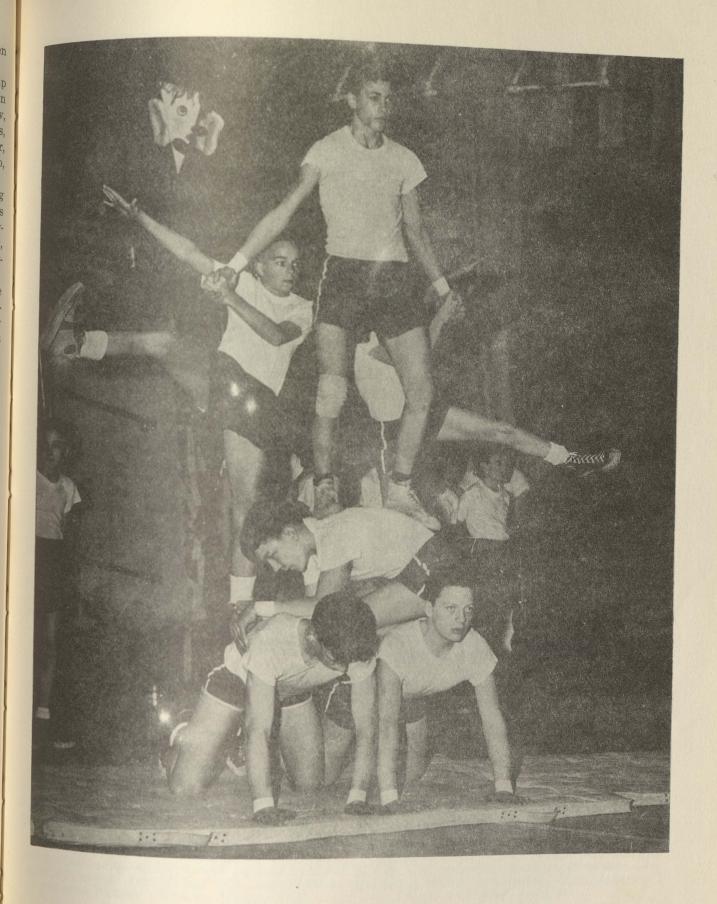

Concluding this year's show Jack and Jill Hegenauer presented a routine of adagio at its best. For the third consecutive year this brother and sister team appeared as our climactic act.

South's clowns added to the circus atmosphere with their antics. The jesters included James Blomstrom and his dog Patsey, Helen Olson, Pat Lodge, Mary Ellen Mahar, Connie Clark, Jim Ross, Ted Seaman, Jim Werman, Sharon Demo, and Judy Neymeier.

Recognition should be given to Mr. Franklin Brooks who played organ music for the various acts.

Movie Squad

Helping the faculty show movies is the job of the movie squad. Under the supervision of Mr. Shelley these boys include: Dale Reppuhn, Joe Pufahl, Don Callison, Ken Hogg, Tom Williams, Jim Blomstrom, Jim Devers, and Bob Crummer.

SOCCER

Our soccer team won the championship on October 29 by overpowering North 13-3, thus completing the season with a record of 5 wins and one tie.

The season opened on September 23 with a hard-fought game against Webber which ended in a 4-4 tie. In our first meeting with Central, we defeated the Centralites by a 5-2 score. The team rounded out the first half of the season by conquering North 10-2.

By defeating Webber 7-2, the team got the second half of the season off to a good start. In our second meeting with Central we beat them 12-3.

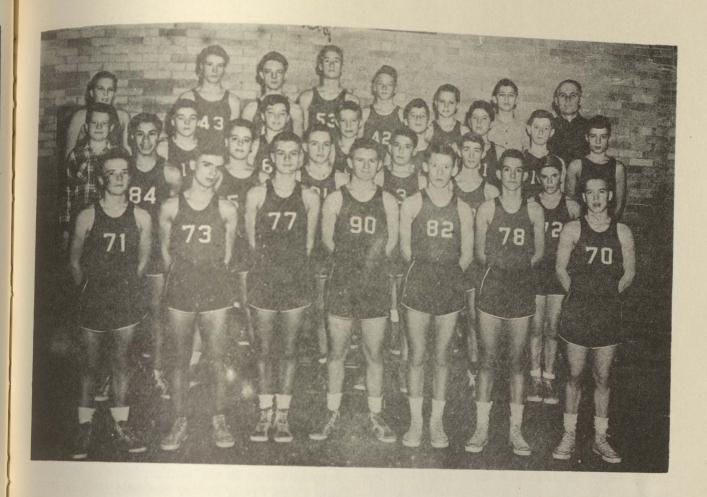

In an interview at the close of the soccer season Coach Noble stated, "The 1953 championship soccer team will be remembered for many years for their fine ability and conduct both on and off the field. Even if they had lost, these boys would have been a credit to South School."

Junior Basketball

By turning in a 6-3 record our juniors shared first place basketball honors with Central and North. Leading the scoring with 74 points in nine games was Tom Harvey.

The junior five started the season with a 31-24 loss to Central but quickly sprang back by winning the next five games by decisive margins. Setting a new record this year was Roger Clark, who played all three positions, guard, center, and forward, in a game with North, whom we over-powered 34-23. An easy victory over Webber, 40-23, concluded the pre-Christmas section of the schedule.

In our second meeting with Central, the juniors avenged their first loss by defeating the Centralites 42-19. Our arch-rival North was our fourth victim by a 32-23 score. Our juniors' fifth straight victory was over Webber whom we defeated 50-36.

Central broke the five game winning streak on their home court by overpowering us 51-27. North also defeated us in a close, hard-fought game we lost by a 29-27 score. By defeating Webber 36-19, our juniors ended the season in a three-way tie.

Senior Basketball

December 3 was a sad day for South's senior basketball team. In spite of Ray Graham's 12 points, our team sank beneath Central's onrushing seniors 35-28 at Central.

The seniors received their second defeat when North acquired 40 points to our 30. The scoring was more evenly distributed, Chet Fobear leading with 8 points.

Our seniors bowed to Webber, 43-21 on December 17. Finally victorious, South's seniors sent Central home with a 32-28 defeat. This January 7 continued on page 32 game made one win in four starts.

Our seniors fell to the mighty North once again on January 14. The game, played at North, was a 51-48 loss, Fobear leading our scoring with 10 points.

Gerard, Graham, and Fobear made 10, 9, and 7 points respectively to no avail in our own gym on January 21, when our seniors again fell to Webber. The 32-30 score made the fifth loss.

Central avenged themselves on January 28 by beating our boys 39-30, despite the 22 points divided equally between Gerard and Graham.

North's gym was the battlefield on February 4, and the seniors last game with North was a 44-22 loss.

The last game, played with Webber on February 11, our seniors lost 32-30.

Swimming Team

Training for the all-city junior high swim meet, South's squad of 36 boys has been working out at the Y. M. C. A. on set dates. Mr. Byron will chose participants for the meet from the following group: Fred Barnard, Albert Beam, Adam Daubert, Ernie Dewel, Dick Fisher, Ted Grigg, Jim Huges, Bill Crane, Joe Day, Pat Fitzgerald, Ron Gage, Ray Huff, Paul Nieman, Gary Weiker, Henry Wesner, Jim Williams, John Wolf, Steve Davis, Herald Finner, Gary Hayman, Bruce Lord, Bob Lord, Bob Montague, Wayne Patterson, Bob Rock, Tom Schadt, Del Shrems, Bill Remington, James Hale, Walter Link, Pete List, Ken Meyer, Barry Stricker, and Bruce Southworth.

Baseball

As we go to press, no baseball games have been played. Coached by Mr. Grossman this year's squad includes: Roger McIntosh, Dale Elbert, Louie Gerard, Jim Eurich, Paul Osterbeck, Ralph Ederer, Ray Graham, Jim Wynes, Jim Huges, Dave Winterle, Bill Mantel, Adam Daubert, Vince Mosca, Rod

Girls' Volleyball

After playing six opponents, South's volleybal team ended the season sharing second place honor with North. At our first game we played on the Webber floor and we won both matches. We los both games when Central, our second opponent came here to play us. Our girls traveled to North for the third game. Scores for these games went down in the records as South 15, North 7, and North 15, South 9.

We were hosts to Webber the next week and our team won 15-6; 15-11. Central was our next opponent. We were on top the first game 15-12 but the Webber girls came back the second to win 15-11.

The sixth and last game was played here with North. We won the first 15-5 and lost the next 15-11.

South's vollyball team included Captain Bobbie Stormont, Ginny Anderson, Kay Balzer, Sandy Beckmann, Sharon Black, Judy Blohm, Jo Ellen Boergert, Joyce Buggia, Pat Day, Carol English, Julia Frieling, Suzanne Fritzler, Deanne Gullifor, Delores Hunt, Wanda Hunter, Carol Kleinert, Judy La Fleur, Rachel Miller, Marilyn Price, Barbara Price, Prudy Prine, Nathalie Radina, Elaine Rappuhn, Connie Ruiz, Deanne Salvi, Estholia Sanchez, Sandy Schriener, Nancy Schreiner, Carol Shultz, Bonnie Seaman, Joyce Sharar, Gale Smith, Judi Smith, Sue Symons, Ruthann Thumme, Nancy Vondette, Margaret Whalin, Carol Whitmer, and Marcia Zacharias. Mary Kay Spadafore and Marianne Krenz were managers.

Girls' Intramural Volleyball and Basketball

Winning the girls' intramural volleyball championship were the 9B 110's; 8B 125's, and the 7B 205's with their respective captains Julia Frieling, Nancy Schart, and Diane Orr.

Homeroom basketball championships were taken by Sandy Chinander and her 9B 216 team, the 8B112's team captained by Barbara Gerow, and the 7B205's with Mona Oblander as captain.

First Semester Play

A spring comedy-drama, "Melody Jones," by Ruth and Nathan Hale, was chosen for our first semester play. Under the direction of Mr. Eynon, the play was presented December 11, and a matinee performance was given December 9. The play, adapted from a television production, concerns the antics of the Jones family and their adopted daughter Melody, a typical sixteen-year-old. The cast was as follows:

Mr. Shumate and the Junior Band supplied music between the acts. The stage crew, headed by Charles Barr, manger, includes Bill Lobsiger, Henry Collier and Jim Hall. Nancy Schriener prompted. The make-up committe, sponsored by Miss Zubler, consisted of Paul Osterbeck, Judy Moeller, Judi Smith, and Dick Fisher. In charge of properties were Barbara Lewis and Nancy Bruening.

Professional Assemblies

Scotland was the theme of our first professional assembly, Wednesday, September 30. Hamish MacGregor, assisted by Catherine MacFarlane, entertained with Scottish songs, history, and stories.

Presented on Wednesday, October 28, was an all-color movie of Ethiopia, "The Land of Cush." Fredric and Sylvia Christian, who took the pictures, spoke as they showed the spectacular movies.

Albert A. Windle, a minister from Peirmont, New York, gave a talk on "Seeing for the Visually Handicapped" on December 8.

Featured on Febuary 25 at the fourth professional assemly was "Ballet of the Flowers." This was the high point of the time-lapse photography revealed by I. J. Corgan, biologist, photographer, and lecturer, in his motion picture "Beauties and Beasts"

Second Semester Play

"Let Me Grow Up," by Anne Coulter Martens, was the hilarious comedy presented on April 2. A matinee was given on March 31. The plot involves a beautiful movie actress, age 39, who, in order to get a leading movie role, asks her sixteen-year-daughter, Lexie, who is entertaining a soldier at the time, to pose as nine, her seventeen-year-old son to pretend to be the gardner, and her eldest daughter to impersonate a maid.

Junior-Senior High School Vocal Festival

South's vocal groups participated in an all-school vocal music festival on May 13 at the auditorium. Mr. Harry Wilson of Columbia University directed the concert. Singing with groups from the city junior and senior high schools were our eighth and ninth grade choir, the girls' glee club; the seventh grade boys' glee club; the eighth and ninth grade choir; the girls' glee club; the seventh grade boys' glee club; the eighth and ninth grade boys' glee club; and the seventh grade girls' glee club.

The fine music sung by the eighth and ninth grade choir and girls' glee club included "Glory to God" by Bach, "Bless the Lord" by Ivanoff, and "Chartown," a southern folk song. The boys' glee clubs sang "Sweet Betsey" and "Night Shadows Falling" and the seventh grade girls' glee club sang "Softly Now the Light of Day" and "Rosa Becka Lina." The choir and girls' glee club also sang "Jacob's Ladder," a negro spiritual.

Vocal Concert

Under Miss Immel's direction, the vocal music groups presented their spring concert, "Music America," on May 21, in the school auditorium. The groups participating were the combined eighth and ninth grade choir, the seventh, eighth, and ninth grade girls' glee club, the seventh, eighth, and ninth grade boys' glee club, the eighth grade general music classes, and the Madrigals.

The program opened with the combined groups singing "This Is My Country" followed by the seventh grade girl's glee club singing folk songs, "Softly Now the Light of Day" and "Rosa-Becka-Lina."

Early America was the theme for the songs sung by the eighth and ninth grade choirs: "The Lost Chord," "Rain and the River," and "The Little Brown Church."

The eighth and ninth grade girls' glee club sang songs ranging from Europe to the modern love song: "The Little Sandman," with Mary Johnson and Janet Gage as soloists, "Oh Dear What Can the Matter Be," and "Without Your Loving Smile," with Connie Clark, soloist.

A piano solo was next on the program with Janice Rapp playing "Libestraum."

Songs from the western part of our country were sung by the boys' glee clubs. Their numbers were "Tell Me Why," "Sweet Betsey from Pike," and "The Dogie Song," with Don Callison and Bob Schneider playing ukeleles.

Songs from the South, "Charlottown," and "Jacob's Ladder," were sung by the eighth and ninth grade choir.

A song from Ireland was sung by soloist Herb Benjamin—"Sure a Little Bit of Heaven."

With eighth graders from the general music classes dancing, the choir sang "Bicycle for Two," and "The Band Played on," two songs depicting the gay nineties period.

Favorites of today, "Blue Moon," and "Alice Blue Gown" were sung by the Madrigals, and one of the latest popular songs, "Gee" was sung by the "Cats."

To conclude the program, the audience, and the entire vocal groups stood and recited the Pledge of Allegiance and sang "America the Beautiful." The final number was "This Is my Country," sung by the combined groups.

Accompianists were Janet Gage and Janice

Instrumental Concert

Our instrumental students, under the direction of Mr. Shumate, presented their spring concert on May 7, at 8:00 p. m. Master of Ceremonies, Jack O'Brien, was chosen by try-out by a faculty committee.

Opening the concert, the orchestra chose to play "Petite Bouree" by DeProsse. The beginning violin class, combined with the orchestra, played "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton" by Spielman, and "Onward Christian Soldiers" by Sullivan.

Next the orchestra played a "Gavotte" by Gillet' Janet Gage's piano solo was "Military Polonaise' by Chopin. To end its part of the progrom, the orchestra played "Plink, Plank, Plunk" by Anderson.

"Down Main Street" by Weidt and "Sleepy Time Gal" by Lorenzo were the numbers selected by the junior band.

A saxophone quintet consisting of Becky Habel, Hugh Smith, Roberta Stormont, Jim Mark, and Pete List played "Jericho" by Yoder.

The junior band continued with "Indian Boy" by Bennett. Presented by the first year band were "The Regiment Band" by Metcalf and three favorite hymns: "Abide With Me" by Monk; "Yield Not to Temptation" by Palmer; and "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

A violin quartet, Mary Flucke, Ruthann Thumme, Shelley Abler, and Pat Kirchner, played "Annie Laurie" arranged by Zamecnik.

The first year band chose two marches, "The Jolly Coppersmith" by Peter and "I've Been Working on the Railroad," a folksong.

The senior band then presented "King Cotton" by Sousa and "South of the Rio" by Olivadati. Virginia Anderson and Patricia Day, a baritone duet, played "The Pals Polk a" by Barnard.

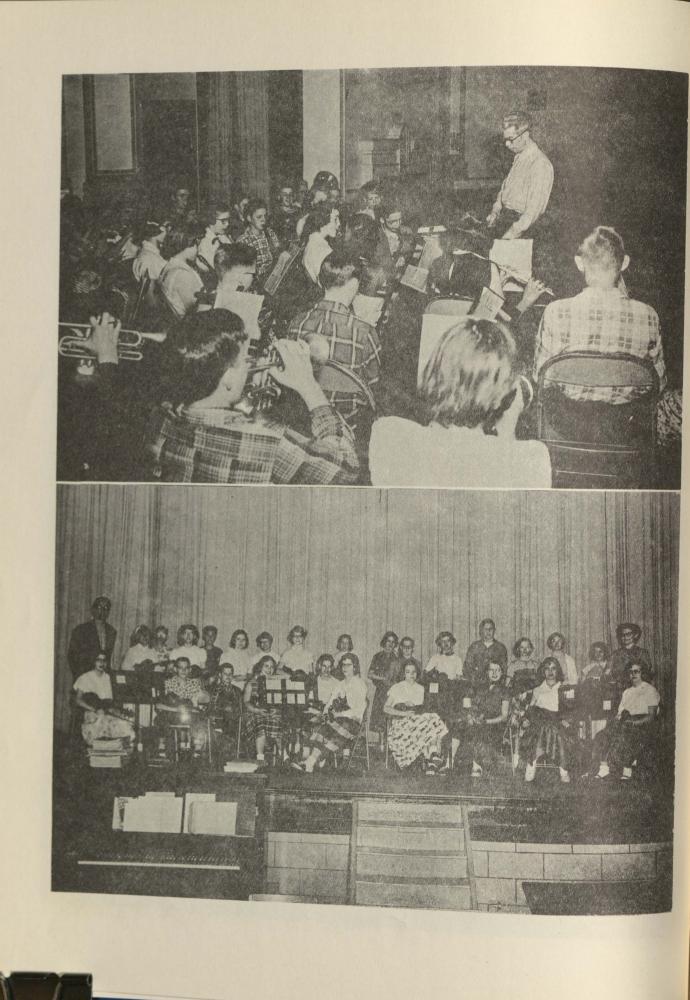

The final numbers of the senior band were "Chapel Shrine" by Leoni, and "The Chaser" by Yoder.

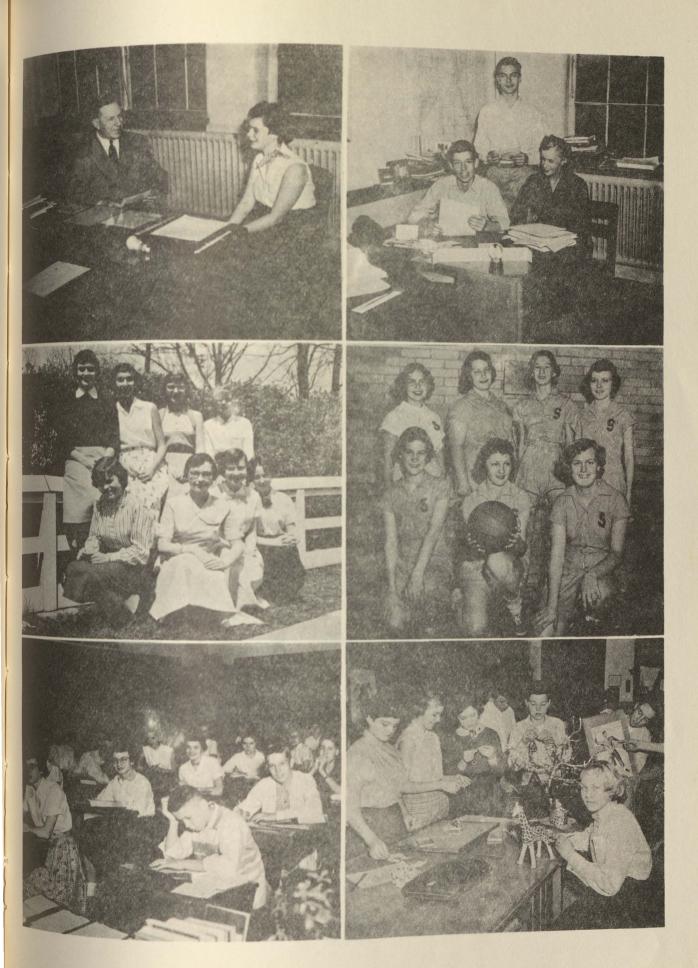

The stage crew for this program consisted of Terry Gronda, Tom Williams, Jack Day, Jonathon Dewald, and Bill Wiechmann.

Rapp. The Pledge to the Flag was given from the stage by Carol Whitmer, Connie Roush, and Terry Gronda. Mr. Eynon supervised the stage crew which included Terry Gronda, Jack Day, Bill Lobsiger, Jack O'Brien, and Charlie Barr.

The floral decorations were arranged by Mrs. Ure and the ninth grade Service Club girls.

9A Banquet

Plans are under way for the 9A Banquet which will be held Monday, June 7, at 6:30. Miss Gay, 9A adviser, has announced that Mrs. J. George O'Brien and Mrs. Carl Olson will be in charge of the dinner. They will be assisted by Mrs. Walter Kirchner, Mrs. Harold Nagel, Mrs. Kenneth Winterle, and Mrs. Frank Woidka.

Student speakers will be sponsored by Mrs. St. John. Heading decorations are Miss Null and Miss Stolz with Pat Brown, Penny Congrove, Dick Fisher, Ray Graham, Marianne Krenz, Gary Murphy, Barbara Ormsby, and Lee Ann Seidel helping them.

Miss Kelley, Miss Vassaw, and Mr. Richards are in charge of the entertainment. Working with them will be Nancy Bartels, Pat Day, Henry Fahnanstiel, Bill LaLonde, George McBain, Suzi Peterson, Nathalie Radina, Roy Simon, Marcia Steiner, and Richard Weaver.

Music for the program will be furnished by the vocal and instrumental departments. Bill O'Brien's Band from Bay City will play for dancing in the boys' gym.

Special guests attending the banquet will include Superintendent Miller and representatives from Arthur Hill High and Trade School and Mr. Guy.

Outstanding Typists

With an average of 55 words per minute, Julia Frieling achieved top speed among typing students. Two 10 minute speed tests are given each week during a marking period. The average is based on the four best tests. Typing in the high 40's and 50's were the following girls: Sandra Chinander, Janice Rapp, Norma Spaeth, Ruth Ann Thumme, Connie Roush, Virginia Anderson, and Bonnie Ahleman. The boys included Jack O'Brien, Robert Houghton, Pete List, and Don Callison.

Connie Clark Interlochen Winner

Connie Clark is the winner of the Morley Foundation Scholarship to Interlochen National Music Camp for the period of August 9-22. Connie, a vocal student and a member of the Madrigals, will participate in the All-State Chorus.

Ninth Graders Visit Arthur Hill

South's ninth graders joined with ninth graders from all the other junior high schools to attend New Student Day, June 9, at Arthur Hill High School. A program in the school auditorium welcomed the newcomers. Gary Murphy respond-

9A Assembly

Reverend Harry G. Suttner of the First Congregational Church addressed the ninth grade students and their guests, the eighth graders, Friday, June 4 at the 9A assembly. Music for the program was provided by several ensemble groups from the vocal and instrumental departments.

The prophecy, a special tradition in this class gathering, was done in skit form under the direction of Mr. Eynon. Pupils taking part included Mary Flucke, Sharon Demo, Pat Day, Marilyn Hatch, Sue Mann. Julia Frieling, Nathalie Radina, Don Callison. Terry Gronda, Tom Williams, and Ray Fischer.

The class will, directed by Miss Sandhoff, was written by a committee composed of the following students: Ken Hogg, Fred Barnard, Larry Weaver, George McBain, Betty Laverty, Bonnie Ahleman, Sharry McCray, Nancy Schriener, Tom Bear, Mary Howard, Judy Holmes, Delores Hunt, Ed Hoffman, Bob Haiser, Bill Beck, Bill LaLonde, Dick Fischer, Carol Klienert, Sharon Smith, Bill Lobsiger, and Art Kickland.

Gold honor pins were awarded by Mr. Guy.

Mary Flucke served as announcer. Miss Kennedy played for the ninth grade processional.

A special committee in charge of arrangements for the assembly was composed of the following girls: Mary Jo Klempnow, June Metzger, Jean Minnis, Prudy Prine, Shirley Reil, Judy Riedlinger, Marilyn Riepe, and Karen Woidka.

Acknowledgment

Because of illness at circus time, Mr. Meyers was unable to obtain circus snaps. We are grateful to Mr. Tony Konecny, a circus patron, who supplied us with the pictures for pages 24, 25, and 29.

Vocal-Instrumental Departments Join for Program

Garron Weiker served as announcer for an assembly program presented jointly by the vocal and instrumental departments Tuesday, May 25. Selections from the spring concert as well as new numbers were given.

ed to the welcome for our school. After the program, the incoming tenth graders met with their advisers and toured the school.

Elementary Activities

SIXTH GRADE-220

In Room 220 we have had many interesting exper-jences this year. Some that we especially enjoyed were iences this yelling india, France, and the British Isles, from which we learned many things about life in these from which we are studying South America, countries. At present we are studying South America, and we found making booklets on Brazil a valuable experience. At the end of the unit we plan to have a play. We enjoyed making articles for the Red Cross such as Christmas tray mats and Easter hats. We also made menu covers for the P. T. A. convention, which was held

In science, we enjoyed studying the solar system, which was a thrilling and fascinating experience.

SIXTH GRADE—222

One of the things that we enjoyed doing most was our Christmas program. We broadcasted it over radio and gave it for the school and the P. T. A. We did the singing and enjoyed it very much.

We have done much art work in our room. drawn pictures on the board with chalk. We liked the fancy hats we made for the Red Cross so well that we made Easter bonnets for ourselves.

When we were studying India, Reverend Anderson visited us and told us some interesting things about India. Then we decided to take an imaginary trip through India.
We think we have accomplished a lot this year.

FIFTH GRADE—212

During the year we studied about Michigan, Canada, Mexico, and the United States parks and resort areas. In connection with our study of Canada we made booklets on something of Canadian interests.

We each made a booklet in our Health class when we studied foods.

In science we carried out various experiments in connection with sound, air, etc.

We carried out several Red Cross projects during the

FIFTH GRADE—214

This year we studied many interesting things in geography. We studied Canada, Alaska, the United States, Hawaii and Mexico.

We made nut cups, tray mats, tray favors for the Junior Red Cross.

In science we studied insects, birds, lightning and thunder.

Part of our room was a voice choir in the Christmas assembly which we also broadcast on the radio.

We enjoyed making clean-up posters for clean-up week, singing two-part songs, making menu covers for the P. T. A. convention, and learning more about division and multiplication, and fractions.

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADE—262

A variety of interests kept us busy this year. We were proud of our rock and fossil collection, our booklets on Norway, Mexico, the jungle and transportation, enjoyed fingerpainting, and working with clay and other art materials. We learned to dance folk and square dances and to sing some two-part songs. We participated in the Christmas program and enjoyed making our snowman and other scenery. Our fifth grade enjoyed map making and canadian sending for materials about different states and Canadian provinces. Our jungle house and scenery gave our room the atmosphere for our original jungle play presented to parents and other rooms. "Transportation in the United States" concluded this fifth grade unit.

FOURTH GRADE—260

This year we had from in clubs. We had science,

This year we had fun in our clubs. We had science, poetry, and library clubs. The news reports and magic shows that were given each week helped to make our work interesting. During social studies we worked on reports and reports and made books about Eskimos, clay objects of the desert, a movie about the Sahara Desert, and a puppet show based on our study of Switzerland.

Our class officers were: President, Janet Hatch, Vice President, John Lorenzen, and Secretary, Sally Schmick.

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADES—252

The third grade enjoyed studying about Indians and pioneers. They made a tepee, beaded headbands, and other things used by the Indians. They also studied about different kinds of clothing, and made books.

The fourth grade have learned about many foreign lands. They made books about Holland.

Everyone studied about insects, spiders, snails, and different units on "How to Keep Well".

Our exhibit of soap carvings, clay modeling and rug weaving were very nice.
THIRD GRADE—258

We began the year with a study of pioneers and con-structed and furnished a log cabin with a fireplace and loft. Mr. Guy told us Paul Bunyan stories and we had fun making up some of our own. We enjoyed studying Indians and made a tepee, tools, papooses, pottery, and head-dresses. Mr. Richards showed us his fine collection of Indian implements. We learned to give reports on different phases of Indian life. We enjoyed the study of the solar system best of all in science

SECOND AND THIRD GRADES-254

Second and third grades began the year with a study of the farm and health. We built a grocery store. Later we studied the history of our calendar and made calendars for our parents for Christmas.

Airplanes and pioneers helped make the beginning of the second semester an interesting experience.

The Post Office gave much practice in writing letters. Indians brightened our room the latter part of the

SECOND GRADE—256

Our room has had a variety of interests this year. In the fall we devoted time to insects, birds, and trees and their changes for winter. Now, we are busy building a small town, "Green Valley", complete with stores, houses, and rivers. While building the town we learned about transportation, safety and how a store is managed. SECOND GRADE-160

A Christmas dramatization and a puppet show high-lighted the year's program. These activies presented live situations for oral and written composition, spelling, music, and art.

Other interesting experiences were afforded when the children visited the farm dairy, a grocery store, an airport, a bakery, and the post office.

Then, too, arithmetic functioned through the treatment of milk money, store keeping, telling time, taking attendance, and playing games.
FIRST GRADE—152

We are very proud of ourselves for now we can all read and write.

We have studied about home life, farm life, and community worker. We had interesting trips to the bakery, fire station and farm. Most of all we enjoyed making puppets and a stage and giving the play, "Little Red Riding Hood" for other groups and for our mothers.

FIRST GRADE—158

FIRST GRADE—158

Last fall we studied the home and built a playhouse.

We enjoyed building it and playing in it.

Later we studied the doctor and the house became a doctor's office. Dr. Goldberger visited us, answered our questions, and let us play with his stethoscope.

Then we played Hansel and Gretel in our house. Our nothers came to see our play.
FIRST GRADE—162

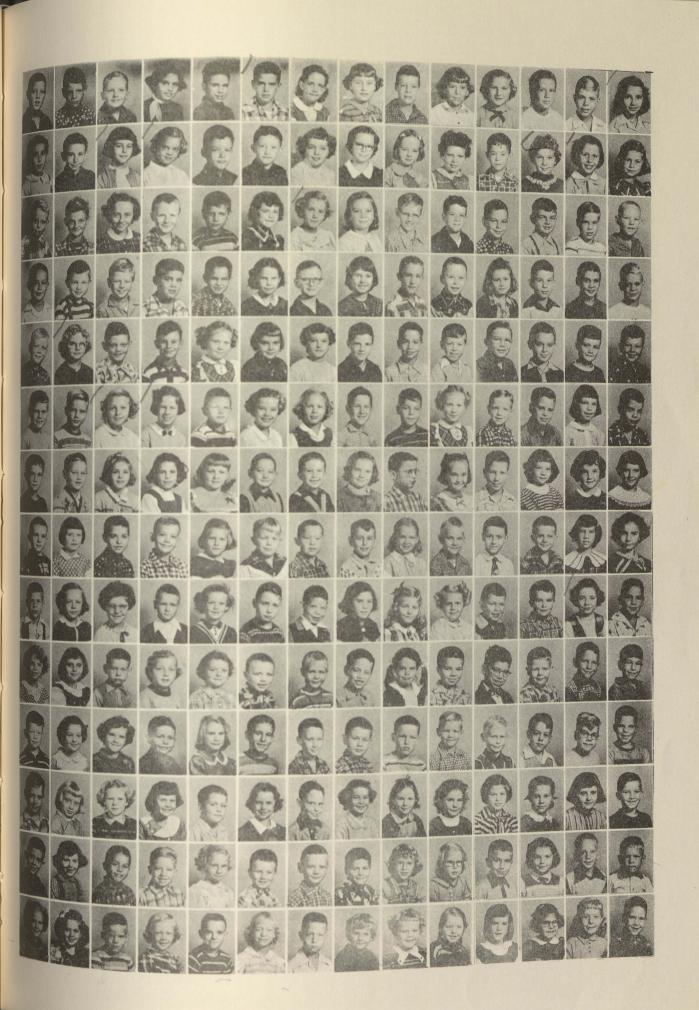

Our first grade has had a very successful year. We have learned to write and read very well. We gave a circus program and tea party for our parents the week before Easter. We had fun making and baking the cookies for the party. After Easter we went to Bay City for a train ride and learned many things about trains.

We studied "Our Community Helpers" and visited the Central Fire Station.

SIS SNOOPER

Many fads have come and gone Along with records and popular songs. There were men's shirts, keychains, and peg pants. Parties and homework—plus lots of romance. Let's see now, there's Shelly and Dud, Boy! Neither of them would want a sub! Ginny has gotten truly sweet, On a certain guy — namely Pete. Sue and Bill are in a whirl, We all know that she's his girl. As for Pat and Jack, well listen here, You'll never find their paths to veer! Everyone knows that Habel and Tarte, Are not so happy when they are apart. Moeller's spring fancy is strictly for Bear, They really do make a suitable pair. Now Glenn Miller's music makes no one blue His "String of Pearls" is "In the Mood." "Crazy Bout Ya Baby" is really neat Sung by "The Crew Cuts" it can't be beat. "Here" at South they rate first place, It's the "Oh Gee" boys that set the pace. You must have heard" Poor Butterfly" On this one "The Hilltoppers" went sky high. "I Speak to the Stars," by Doris Day Is a lovely ballad that passed our way. Ray Anthony really hit the top His "Dragnet" was a best-selling pop. As for Eartha Kitt, she's oh! so neat Her records have had that frantic beat. Eddie Fisher is the king of song Buying his records you can't go wrong. Robert Wagner is our sigh-guy; No movie of his will we pass by. "Down by the Riverside" was South's theme song. Everyone sang it all day long. "The Glenn Miller Story" certainly rated high; James Stewart portrayed this talented guy. 'Till next year.
